UBCM Members Call for Nominations 2022-2033
Nomination Form for the 2022-2023 UBCM Executive Ramsay

RECOMMENDATION:

That Council APPROVE the resolution attached to the report dated July 14, 2022 from Mayor Lyn Hall titled “Nomination of Councillor Ramsay to Union of British Columbia Municipalities Executive Board”.

DISCUSSION:

The Union of British Columbia Municipalities (UBCM) provides a collective voice for local governments in British Columbia.

Policy direction for UBCM is guided by member municipalities during the Annual Convention. The positions developed are carried by UBCM to other orders of government, including through annual presentations to Cabinet, involvement in intergovernmental committees, regular meetings with provincial Ministers and regular contact with senior government.

Representation on the UBCM Executive Board facilitates the City having a direct voice in the advancement of local government concerns. This work is extremely valuable to Prince George.

Should Councillor Ramsay be elected as an Executive Member, UBCM will reimburse travel expenses and a per diem for meals and incidentals for all activities relating to the Executive Board. All regular costs for attending the Annual Convention will continue to be incurred by the local government.

Councillor Ramsay currently sits as the North Central Local Government Association Representative on the UBCM Executive Board.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED:

Mayor Lyn Hall

MEETING DATE: July 25, 2022
