Presentation Topic

VAWIR is a multi-organizational committee that has a long history in Prince George and has recently re-grouped after dying out during Covid. The provincial VAWIR policy was created by the Ministry of Attorney General in Canada and came into effect December 2010. We would like to attend a council meeting in order to present what exactly our committee is, who we are, how we are working to stem violence against women in relationships in our community, and how we can work with Mayor and council to do this together.
