Presentation Topic

The Child Development Centre of Prince George and District helps children overcome unique challenges. At this critical stage in their development, we offer specialized services that lead to greater independence and more freedom to determine their own future. These services are provided at no cost by our over 50 staff, funded under an operating grant from the Government of British Columbia, supplemented by donations, gifts and sponsorships. A network of professionals, parents, volunteers and supporters contributes to every success we achieve. We assess and treat over 1,000 children annually and together, we can change children's lives, and enrich our own.
