

Autumn Revival III 2PM and 7:30PM

Saturday, November 7 & Sunday, November 8
Prestige Treasure Cove Resort Ballroom

Enjoy the magnificent sound of a brass ensemble! Our brass section presents three diverse selections beginning with the somber Queen Mary Funeral Music by Henry Purcell, followed by two pieces by Giovanni Gabrieli: Canzon per Sonare No. 2, and Sonata pian'e forte. Then, for something completely different, we present three beautiful pieces for strings: Voyage by John Corigliano, Divertimento in B flat KV 137 by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, and Serenade for Strings by Edward Elgar.

Autumn Revival IV 2PM and 7:30PM

Saturday, November 14 & Sunday, November 15
Prestige Treasure Cove Resort Ballroom

Our final concert of the fall classics series opens with Johannes Brahms's Variations on a Theme of Haydn, arranged by Ian Farrington, for clarinet, bassoon, horn, violins, viola, cello, and bass. As a finale we welcome back guest pianist Leslie Dala to play Ludwig Van Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 5 in E flat major, also known as "The Emperor."

Fall Kinder Concert

Winter Wonderland

Saturday, December 5 • 1:00 and 2:30PM
Prestige Treasure Cove Resort Ballroom

Remember these fun-filled, educational concerts? Winter Wonderland, our final concert of the Fall 2020 season, promises to be every bit as enjoyable for kids 3 to 8 years and beyond.

Fall Classics Series

Autumn Revival I 2PM and 7:30PM

Saturday, September 26 & Sunday, September 27
Prestige Treasure Cove Resort Ballroom

Our season opens with Franz Krommer's Quartet in B flat Op 46 No1 for violin, viola, cello and bassoon, featuring our principal bassoonist Lynn Giesbrecht. The second piece, Nonet in F Major by Franz Paul Lachner, introduces a larger ensemble of both string quartet and woodwind quintet.

Autumn Revival II 2PM and 7:30PM

Saturday, October 24 & Sunday, October 25
Prestige Treasure Cove Resort Ballroom

Our second concert begins with Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart's Clarinet Quintet K581 for 2 violins, viola, cello, clarinet featuring our principal clarinetist Simon Cole. This piece is followed by Nonet in F Major Op 31 by Louis Spohr for violin, viola, cello, bass, french horn, flute, clarinet, oboe, and bassoon.

Welcome to the PGSO's 50th Anniversary Fall Season: Bringing Back the Joy of Live Music.

We are thrilled to present an exciting Fall Series of concerts - bringing back the joy of listening to live orchestral music.

All PGSO fall concerts will be held in the ballroom of the Prestige Treasure Cove Resort. Each concert will be performed four times on the concert weekend with only 50 attendees at each concert as per the BC Health Authority's regulations. We ask that you bring a mask and wear it upon entering or leaving or when you are not seated. If you forget your mask, we will have one for you. The concerts will be of sixty to seventy minutes duration with no intermission. Coffee, tea, and spirits can be ordered prior to the concert so come early, settle in, and enjoy an appetizer (on us) and a refreshment.

Our first two concerts will be presented by our Core professional musicians, joined by community bass musician Susan Kelly and Vancouver violist Thomas Beckman.

In November we welcome Maestro Michael Hall back to Prince George to conduct two "small orchestra" concerts. For many, the highlight of the fall classics series will undoubtedly be the return of Les Dala as our guest pianist for our Autumn Revival IV concert.

To close the fall season, we present our "Winter Wonderland" Kinder Concert on December 5th. Join us with your children, grandchildren, or nieces or nephews for a socially-distanced afternoon delight.

Please join us for our 50th Anniversary fall concerts. We promise to follow all safety protocols while we bring back the joy of live music for you, our patrons.
